Artistic approach

«Paint what does not have any representation, give plastic expression to that which is devoid of visual form.»

Abstraction as a language

Visual artist heSBé has her own individual vision of people, time and space, intimate and universal. In her language, abstraction process becomes a passing act.

Artistic acts which reflect invisible processes of reality; a material and colorist calligraphy ; an aesthetic research exploring the different ways of being in the world.

Works as so many experiences between memory and conscienceness in a positive metaphor of movement.
